RE: My Auto Import Center

Dear Brett:

This letter I hope will serve as our formal "thank you" for all your personal effort in bringing our new dealership in, "on time", and "on budget".

"The size of the villain determines the size of the hero. Without Goliath, David is just some punk throwing rocks". (Billy Crystal in My Giant)

We had enough "giant"-challenges to help cast you as David II, not just some punk throwing rocks. While the Democrats hid behind the phrase, "no controlling moral authority", I did appreciate how you, as the "controlling moral authority project director", told me directly when there were unexpected issues, or mistakes, rather than fabricate excuses.

The dealership is experiencing challenging growth, and we also appreciate your ongoing help.

With best personal regards;

Mark G. Campbell, MD, MHA
